Investment Philosophy and Approach

Under normal conditions, the Fund invests at least 80% of assets in equity securities of companies with large market capitalizations (any company with a market capitalization in excess of $5 billion, which definition is applied at the time of purchase).

Screen broad universe of approximately 1,000 large cap stocks based upon:

- Credit worthiness
- Capital investment
- Sales momentum

Approximately 300 companies evaluated by focusing on:

- Life Cycle stage
- Level, trend and sustainability of economic return

Yields a potential buy list of approximately 150 firms that we believe are well managed. A portfolio is constructed after target prices are established and relative attractiveness is considered. Dual diversification by Life Cycle stage and sector are integral to portfolio construction. Diversification does not assure a profit or protect from loss in declining markets.

Mutual fund investing involves risk; principal loss is possible. The fund invests in smaller companies, which involve additional risks such as limited liquidity and greater volatility.

All performance assumes reinvestment of dividends and capital gains.

The Russell 1000 Index measures the performance of the 1,000 largest companies in the Russell 3000 Index. The Russell 3000 Index measures the performance of the 3,000 largest U.S. companies based on total market capitalization. The index does not reflect investment management fees, brokerage commissions, or other expenses associated with investing in equity securities. A direct investment in an index is not possible.
