IRONBRIDGE SMALL CAP FUND

---

Investment Objective.

The investment objective of the IronBridge Small Cap Fund (“Small Cap Fund”) is capital appreciation.

Portfolio Fees and Expenses.

The following table describes the fees and expenses that you may pay if you buy and hold shares of the Small Cap Fund.

Shareholder Fees (fees paid directly from your investment)

Maximum Sales Charge (Load) Imposed on Purchases	NONE
Maximum Deferred Sales Charge (Load)	NONE
Maximum Sales Charge (Load) Imposed on Reinvested Dividends	NONE
Redemption Fee (as a percentage of amount redeemed, if applicable)	NONE
Exchange Fee	NONE
Maximum Account Fee <sup>(1)</sup>	$15

<sup>(1)</sup> A service fee of $15 may be imposed for shares redeemed by wire.

Annual Fund Operating Expenses (expenses that you pay each year as a percentage of the value of your investment)

Management Fees	1.00%
Distribution (12b-1) Fees	NONE
Other Expenses	0.11%
Total Annual Fund Operating Expenses<sup>(1)</sup>	1.11%

(1) The Total Annual Fund Operating Expenses for the Fund do not correlate to the Ratio of Expenses to Average Net Assets in the Financial Highlights which reflects the operating expenses of the Fund and does not include acquired fund fees and expenses (“AFFE”). For the fiscal year ended June 30, 2017, AFFE for the Fund was less than 0.01%.

Expense Example.

This Example is intended to help you compare the cost of investing in the Small Cap Fund with the cost of investing in other mutual funds.

This Example assumes that you invest $10,000 in the Small Cap Fund for the time periods indicated and then redeem all of your shares at the end of those periods. The Example also assumes that your investment has a 5% return each year and that the Small Cap Fund’s operating expenses remain the same. Although your actual costs may be higher or lower, based on these assumptions your costs would be:

If you sell your shares in:	1 Year	3 Years	5 Years	10 Years
Small Cap Fund	$113	$353	$612	$1,352

Portfolio Turnover.

The Small Cap Fund pays transaction costs, such as commissions, when it buys and sells securities (or “turns over” its portfolio). A higher portfolio turnover rate may indicate higher transaction costs and may result in higher taxes when fund shares are held in a taxable account. These costs, which are not reflected in annual fund operating expenses or in the Example, affect the fund’s performance. During the most recent fiscal year, the Small Cap Fund’s portfolio turnover rate was 32% of the average value of its portfolio.

Principal Investment Strategies.

The Small Cap Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing, under normal market conditions, at least 80% of its assets (plus borrowings for investment purposes) in equity securities of U.S. companies with small market capitalizations. For this purpose, RMB Capital Management, LLC (the “Adviser”) defines a small capitalization company as any company with a market capitalization less than or equal to the largest market capitalization (determined at the time of investment) of any company in the Russell 2000® Index, which, as of September 30, 2017, was approximately $10.12 billion. The Small Cap Fund may invest in unsponsored American Depositary Receipts and/or Global Depositary Receipts, and may, and currently does (as of the date of this Prospectus), invest a significant portion of its assets in financial services companies.

The Adviser actively manages the Small Cap Fund by applying an economic return framework, which measures the Small Cap Fund’s return on investment and adjusts for factors such as inflation or accounting treatments. This is a valuation model that uses cash flow to determine a company’s value, rather than traditional accounting measures such as corporate performance, earnings and book value. The Adviser uses this methodology to identify attractively-priced companies, and as a result, the Small Cap Fund invests primarily in growth and value-style equity securities.

The Adviser reduces positions or sells securities in the Small Cap Fund for a variety of reasons, such as when the securities reach their target price or when a position would exceed 5% of the Small Cap Fund’s net assets.

Principal Investment Risks.

Market Risk. The general level of stock prices as a whole could decline, causing a decline in the value of your investment.

Small-to-Medium Capitalization Risk. The Small Cap Fund invests primarily in small-capitalization stocks. Securities of companies with small-to-medium market capitalizations are often more volatile, less liquid and more susceptible to market pressures than securities of larger issuers.

Stock Selection Risk. Individual stocks may decline in value or not increase in value, even when the stock market in general is rising.

Liquidity Risk. The Adviser may not be able to sell the Small Cap Fund’s securities at a time or at a price that would benefit the Fund.

Equity Securities Risk. Equity securities, such as common stocks, are subject to greater volatility and chance of decline than other securities, such as fixed-income securities.

Management Risk. There is no guarantee that the Adviser will choose investments that increase in value.

Growth Investing Risk. Growth companies are generally more susceptible than established companies to market events and sharp declines in value.

Value Investing Risk. Value stocks may not increase in price, may not issue the anticipated stock dividends or may decline in price, based upon the market’s belief of the issuer’s intrinsic worth.

American Depositary Receipt (ADR) / Global Depositary Receipt (GDR) / European Depositary Receipts (“EDRs”) Risk. ADRs are receipts issued by U.S. banks evidencing ownership in securities of foreign issuers, and GDRs and EDRs are receipts issued by banks in more than one country evidencing ownership in securities of foreign issuers. Securities of foreign issuers, and consequently ADRs, GDRs, and EDRs, may decrease in value due to changes in currency exchange rates, the economic climate in the issuer’s home country or for a variety of other reasons.

Loss of Money Risk. Loss of money is a risk of investing in the Small Cap Fund.

Financial Services Risk. Investing a significant portion of assets in the financial services sector may cause the Small Cap Fund to be more sensitive to the risks and concerns facing financial companies.

Performance.

The bar chart and table below show how the Small Cap Fund has performed in the past and provides some indication of the risks of investing in the Small Cap Fund. The table shows how the performance of the Small Cap Fund has varied from year to year as compared with the returns of the Russell 2000® Index, a securities index that measures the performance of the small-cap segment of the U.S. equity universe. For periods prior to July 23, 2010, the performance shown is that of the Small Cap Fund's predecessor, the Frontegra IronBridge Small Cap Fund (the "Predecessor Small Cap Fund"). The Predecessor Small Cap Fund commenced operations on August 30, 2002 and was reorganized into the Small Cap Fund on July 23, 2010. Upon reorganization, the Small Cap Fund assumed the financial and performance history of the Predecessor Small Cap Fund, which maintained the same fees and expenses as the Small Cap Fund. Keep in mind that past performance (before and after taxes) may not indicate how well the Small Cap Fund will perform in the future. Updated performance information can be found on our website at www.ironbridgefunds.net or by calling toll-free to 1-877-861-7714.

Payments to Broker-Dealers and Other Financial Intermediaries.

If you purchase Small Cap Fund shares through a broker-dealer or other financial intermediary (such as a bank), the Small Cap Fund and/or the Adviser may pay the intermediary for the sale of Small Cap Fund shares and related services.
